Name:
	Date:	Period:
Personal Narrative Essay Outline
Title:
itroduction
Catch the reader's attention with an interesting opening sentence or	two (hook}
Give a little background information about your topic. Set the scene, lyet. Try to create a mood.	_
Introduce your topic and the main idea (thesis statement) you want to (Was it scary? emotional? painful? life altering? Etc.)
Include answers to who, when, and where. (Tell how old you were, w where living, etc.)		•
Lead in to telling what happened, but don't tell the story. End this par which will make the reader want to know more.
Body - Tell your story. Explain what happened. Tell it in the order in we chronological order. Guide the reader through the experience. Use "to develop the sense of time and to connect ideas. Be sure to include tell the story. Try to use specific nouns, vivid action verbs, and descript describing the experience and your thoughts and feelings. Make the expictures in the reader's mind. Make us think and feel as you did. Topic Sentence – Major Point:	ime" transition your thoughts otive adjectives experience com	words and phrases and feelings as you and adverbs in he alive. Paint

laborate/Further Evidence:
ng Sentence:
on - Conclude your writing with a paragraph that summarizes your thoughts and feelings about ience. This is a very important paragraph! It leaves the reader with the final impression of your see and your writing. Begin with a strong topic sentence (thesis statement) that states your main at the experience. Include comments on the following questions to show why and how this see was important in your life:
/hy did this happen? (You may not know) How did it change you?
oes it continue to have an effect on you?
/hy was it an important experience in your life? What did you learn from this experience?
ow has it helped you grow and mature?
Sentence (Restate Main Idea/Thesis):
of the experience for you- how did the experience change you or what it taught you: